

The Wall That Heals, a three-quarter scale replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial along with a mobile Education Center, is coming to Auburn, New York on September 14, 2023 at the City of Auburn Falcon Park Baseball Complex and will be open 24 hours a day and free to the public through 2 p.m. on September 17th. The exhibit is 375 feet in length and stands 7.5 feet high at its tallest point. Visitors can do name rubbings of the 58,281 individual service member's names on The Wall. The 53-foot trailer that carries The Wall That Heals transforms into a mobile Education Center and features educational exhibits about the War and The Wall.

Our hope is that we can make this project a reality, but we cannot do this without the support of people like you. We have to raise the necessary funds six months prior to the event. The cost to bring The Wall That Heals to Auburn is approximately $11,000.00 with additional operating costs of approximately $20,000

Please join us in providing these exceptional and outstanding healing and teaching resources for our citizens and school children.

Please note your sponsorship and support will be publicly acknowledged on signage and in print media. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law as we are a 501 (C)(3) nonprofit organization. The effective date of our exemption is September 1, 2006. Our EIN number is 20-5583402. Please mail your donation to: VVA704, PO BOX 1484, Auburn, New York 13021

NEVER AGAIN WILL ONE GENERATION OF VETERANS ABANDON ANOTHER

Individual/Organization Name _____

Organization Contact Information

PHONE _____

EMAIL _____

Address _____

Sponsorship Amount _____

Amount Enclosed: Check Number _____ Date _____

Thank You Cayuga County VVA CHAPTER 704